
Severe Weather with Possible Courier Delays

Dear Regional Pathology Clients,

The predicted weather on Wednesday March 19th has the potential of affecting our services across the region (i.e. Nebraska and Iowa). There may be delays or disruptions to our courier services over the coming days. We are making efforts to minimize any impact. Please be aware that weather-related issues such as road closures, traffic delays or hazardous conditions could potentially affect the timely pickup and arrival of samples. Specific client delays will be communicated when information becomes available.

Recommendations:

- Process and store samples for longest stability.
 - Test stabilities can be found here: Test Directory
- Contact Client Services with office closures and questions.
 - Phone: 402-559-6420 -or- 800-334-0459
 - Email: pathclientservrps@unmc.edu
